TOWN DESTROYED BY EARTHQUAKES IN MEXICAN STATE

Chilapa in Cuernavaca in Ruins and Fifteen Thousand People Are Homeless.

Mexicans Sleep Outdoors Fearful of Another Shock.

AMERICAN WOMAN IS KILLED

City of Mexico, March 28.—Between 300 and 500 are believed to be dead as the result of the earthquake Thursday from reports received here, which have been delayed because of telegraphic interruption. Towns south suffered the most. Six shocks were felt here yesterday. People slept in the open during the night fearing a repetition. The towns of Chilapa, Chilpancingo, Conception, Tezcuila, Cuernavaca are ruined. Chilapa was destroyed by fire.

Chilapa is a town of 15,000 inhabitants in the state of Cuernavaca. Two shocks occurred early Thursday evening and were followed by three, which originating in a dozen places among the ruined buildings, joined in the fire that ruined the town.

Only meager facts are known here.
The loss of life, if any, as well as the amount of property damage, is uncertain.

American Woman Lost Life.

Mrs. Emma Jeanette Doreville, an American, lost her life in the quake in the Thursday theater at Vera Cruz, which followed the earthquake Thursday night. When the quake was felt, the audience rushed for the exits and many were severely bruised but none were seriously injured. Mrs. Doreville dropped dead from fright.

In this city, a gentleman was killed and fifteen persons slightly and one fatally injured by falling beams and walls.

GRACE BROWN'S DEATH

Albany, March 28.—The parents of Chester Gillette and six witnesses appeared before Governor Hughes today to present newly found evidence, which they believe will justify Governor Hughes in granting a respite to the execution set for Monday. It is alleged Grace Brown, whom the state prosecuted, fell from the beam in an epileptic fit.

CINCINNATI GUARDS WAREHOUSES CLOSELY

Cincinnati, March 28.—Every bi-business warehouse in Cincinnati was under special police guard Thursday night and will be for some time. The streets about the warehouses are kept clear, and after night fell no one allowed to loiter about them. In addition to this the tobacco men had men of their own in the warehouses all night. The belief that the fire in Covington Thursday morning was caused by night riders is gaining ground. The Newport company of militia was held in readiness Thursday night in anticipation of any further night rider activity. Patrolman McShane early this morning found a man giving the name of H. Smith, and claiming to be a farmer from Lawrenceburg, Ind., wandering about the street in front of the Farmers and Shippers' warehouse on West Front street. Matches and rope were found in his pockets.

BERT GRIEF DIES OF LOSS OF BLOOD AFTER ACCIDENT

A letter was received by Ed Paschall at Fulton giving an account of the death of Bert Grief, at Guadalupe, Porto Rico. The accident occurred while the young man was out on his motor car. He collided with a freight car, severing an artery, and a few hours later bled to death. The young man was the son of one of the most prominent transportation men of this city. The deceased has many friends here, and his untimely death comes as a great shock to them.

Mr. Hart Grief was born and reared in Paducah. He was the eldest son of Mr. Ed Grief and the grandson of Mr. Nicholas Grief, who died several years ago. Mr. Hart Grief was married two years ago to a young woman of Cleveland, O., and was doing well, working in the interest of his father at the time of his death.

Aldrich Currency Bill is Passed in Senate by Strictly Party Vote After an All Day Consideration.

House Leaders Have Little to Say About Measure, Which is Now in Their Hands, But it Probably Will Pass.

Washington, March 28.—The Aldrich currency bill passed the senate 12 to 18, in the main a party vote.

Previous to taking the vote on the bill, a vote was taken on the Halley substitute authorizing the government instead of the national banks to issue emergency circulation for which the bill provides. The vote on the substitute 42 to 13, was entirely partisan, even La Follette voted with the Republicans. The bill has been before the senate since January 2, and the vote was not reached until after 6 p. m.

An interesting feature was the recitation by Aldrich of his promise to bring in a bill for the investigation of the entire banking system of country with a view to instituting a reform.

As passed the bill provides for not more than $500,000,000 emergency currency to be issued to the national banks upon deposit by them of state securities and municipal bonds to be approved by the secretary of the treasury, the currency to be issued with a view to securing an equitable distribution of currency over the United States, and in accordance with the unimpaired capital and surplus of the banks in each state.

The banks are to pay for this emergency circulation half of one per cent a month during the first four months it is circulated and afterwards three-quarters of one per cent a month.

The bill provides that national banks shall pay not less than one percent on the government funds deposited with them.

The senate devoted its entire session to consideration of the bill, and after further amending and passing it adjourned until Monday.

As amended the bill carries an important change in the banking laws relating to bank reserves.
This amendment provides that of the 15 per cent reserve required to be kept by banks not in reserve cities 1-5 of this is to be kept in the vaults of the banks and of that amount one-third can be in the form of securities of the kind required.

By another amendment agreed to the period during which one-half of one per cent interest is to be charged was reduced from 8 to 1 months after which three-fourths of 1 per cent is to be charged until re-demmed. At the instance of La Follette an amendment was adopted prohibiting national banks from investing funds in stocks or other securities of corporations, the officers or directors of which are officers or directors of the bank, and providing a penalty of imprisonment of one to five years, in accepting this amendment, Aldrich stated that he had not time to consider the amendment fully but was in sympathy with its general purpose. He said it could be perfected in conference.

The Vote.

The proposition to insert the provision for the government guarantee of deposits in national banks was defeated 11 to 15, most of the Democratic vote being against the proposed amendment. Another amendment offered by La Follette prohibited loans by national banks to its officers or to any corporation, the majority stock of which is owned by officers of the bank. It was rejected as also was the amendment by Nelson, of Minnesota, providing that no officer or employe of a national bank shall be a member of a stock exchange or engaged in buying or selling stocks or bonds on a commission basis. The amendment by La Follette to punish by imprisonment any falsification in bank securities was adopted but was amended against by Knox as already provided for by the existing law. Teller offered, on request of Halley, of Texas, who was absent, a substitute currency bill of the senator from Texas which he stated was in main similar to the Aldrich bill.

RUBIE MAY SMALLEY

Miss Rubie May Smalley, 22 years old, daughter of D. R. Smalley, died last evening at 3:10 o'clock at her home in Arcadia. She was a young woman of lovely christian character.
The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Tenth Street Christian church.

BANDITS ESCAPE AFTER STEALING $1,000 FROM P. O.

Bloomington, Ill., March 28.— Three bandits early today dynamited the postoffice safe at Lexington and secured $1,000 in cash and stamps and escaped on a passing train. Explosion awakened the citizens, who were fired on when they attempted to capture the bandits.

LYON COUNTY OFFICIALS REFUSED TO ALLOW TROOPS USE OF COURT HOUSE

Fear of Night Riders Prevents Citizens From Furnishing Provisions to Soldiers in Tents.

Eddyville, Ky., March 28.—(Special.)—County authorities denied soldiers here the use of the court house and troops are forced to live in tents.
The people are afraid to supply them with provisions on account of their fear of night riders.

School Book Bill.
Frankfort, Ky., March 28.—The governor vetoed the Watkins-Dowling school book bill.

COLORED FAMILIES RETURN

Two negro families, which left Kut-tawa for fear of night riders, returned to that place this morning, having been assured by officers that they would not be molested. Several negroes, who left Benton, also returned this morning, believing that the danger of molestation has passed.

DETECTIVES FLEE

Detestives Boone and McDonald the Pinkertons, who participated in the recent crusade against vice, were sprung away last evening by Patrolman Hurley, who took them in a buggy to Metropolis Landing, where they were ferried across to Metropolis. It was rumored that a mob was preparing to wreak vengeance on them, and Magistrate Emery, charging them with carrying concealed weapons. Officers got on the wrong trail and went into the country to find them.

SIX BREAK JAIL

Fairmont, W. Va., March 28.—Six prisoners forced the bars in the county jail here today and escaped. Five made a clean get-away. The sixth, after eating breakfast, returned to jail. Hoodlums are in pursuit.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, Mo., March 28.—Wheat, 100; corn, 66½; oats, 55.

DRINKING FLASK IN STREET CAR IS CAUSE OF BATTLE

Congressman Heflin Shoots the Negro Who Drank and Wounded Bystander.

Said Negro Used Vile Language and Drew Weapon.

ON STREET OF WASHINGTON

Washington, March 28.—Louis Tundy, the negro who was shot by Congressman Heflin, because the negro persisted in drinking from a flask in a street car, is resting quietly today. Thomas McCrea, who was accidentally shot, says he will prosecute. Heflin will plead self-defense.
Heflin says he remonstrated with the negro and asked him to stop drinking, because of the presence of ladies and violation of the law.

Lumby applied vile epithets to the congressman and Heflin and Lumby soon engaged in a desperate struggle.
Heflin succeeded in throwing Lumby off the car as it came to a stop. The negro arose and it is said made a motion for his hip pocket as if to draw a weapon, whereupon Heflin fired at him through the car window.

Congressman Heflin appeared at the district attorney's office today accompanied by congressmen. At his request the case in police court was continued to give him time to obtain counsel.

PADUCAH LISTED AMONG FOUR GOOD INSURANCE RISKS

Mt. Sterling, Ky., March 28.—(Special.)—Orders were received here by agents of two big insurance companies that no more tobacco risks will be taken, except at Louisville, Paducah, Lexington and Owensboro.

PRISONER TEARS HIMSELF FREE AS DOOR IS REACHED

Joe Johnson, a big strapping colored fellow, escaped from Paducah Owen last evening at 7 o'clock at Eleventh and Husbands streets, while they were waiting for the patrol wagon. Patrolman Owen arrested Johnson for carrying a razor concealed, and another negro said that Johnson had drawn a pistol on him.
But when Johnson was searched the gun was not found. Patrolman Owen told Johnson to Ward's grocery.
Eleventh and Husbands streets, and telephoned for the patrol wagon. As he led the negro through the narrow door to the street, after telephoning, the negro gave a jerk and left. Patrolman Owen with a handful of rags, Johnson slammed the door shut and started running through a crowd in the store. The hunky patrolman threw the door open and started after the fugitive, who ran over the porter and everything in his way. Patrolman Owen did not use his pistol, but since it has been learned that Johnson is wanted elsewhere for a crime.

500 FARMERS ARE AT GRAHAMVILLE IN OPEN SESSION

Grahamville, March 28. (Special.) —Five hundred farmers, members of the Farmers' union, are in session here today. Dinner was served on the ground, and added to the social side of the meeting. This morning the meeting began late, and a short business meeting was held. This afternoon R. L. Barnett, state organizer, made an address to the farmers.
Other farmers were called on from the audience to make addresses. Mc-Cracken and adjoining counties in the Purchase are well represented. A joint session of the Farmers' union and the Dark Tobacco association will be in view for April 4 at this city.

Trimble St. Methodist Church.

The preliminary work for the building of the new Methodist church on Fountain avenue has been about completed and bids for construction will be taken within the next few days. The following circular letter is being distributed among the members and friends of the church and the officials hope to do much of the work during the coming spring and summer. The congregation is a unit in their purpose to build and if the financial depression does not delay the work it will not be many months until the work will be going on.

"After 14 years of hard work on the part of Trimble Street Methodist church, in which all assessments have been paid from year to year, the way has opened for the building of a splendid church in the very best locality in the city. The above cut shows the building as it will be on the corner of Fountain avenue and Monroe street. In this great undertaking the co-operation and help will be necessary from every member of the church, and all the friends as well. The building, when completed, will cost about $20,000, and will have all modern conveniences, such as Sunday school rooms, lecture hall, ladies' parlor, kitchen and dining room, pastor's study and reading room, and class rooms for Sunday school work. It is not fully settled that the church will build this year, but it hopes to do so. This will depend on what is done by you and others to whom this letter may go. Can we not rely on you? Let us do a truly great work for God and for the future. Yours in the work,

"G. W. HANKS, Pastor."

GOVERNOR WARNER, OF MICHIGAN, IS FOR TAFT--NEW JERSEY DELEGATES IN LINE

No Chance For Anyone Else in Race for Republican Presidential Nomination.

Washington, D. C., March 28.—
"There's nothing to it but Taft. The people of the United States want a continuation of the policies of the present administration. Not only do they want the Roosevelt policies continued but they want a man elected president who has stood for those policies in the past and has helped to create those policies. Such a man is Secretary Taft and I have no doubt that he will be nominated at Chicago and nominated quickly." So spoke Governor Fred M. Warner of Michigan, today in summing up the political situation.
"How about Michigan, governor?" he was asked.

"Michigan? Why Michigan is for Taft unquestionably. Ninety per cent of the Republicans there are for him.
If a primary was held my estimate would be borne out."

New Jersey Is for Taft.

Trenton, N. J., March 28.—New Jersey Republicans are overwhelmingly in favor of the nomination of William H. Taft. Canvasses made in all parts of the state show that the popular mind is not merely set upon Mr.
Taft as the candidate of the Chicago convention but that his prominence is undisputed by any arrivals among those who have been mentioned for the nomination. A majority of New Jersey's twenty-four votes will be cast for Mr. Taft at Chicago, if, indeed, he does not receive them all.

Sentiment throughout the state, and particularly in North Jersey, is pronouncedly in favor of Mr. Taft's candidacy, and the drift of public opinion among leading commercial and professional men, including those who do business in New York, is strongly toward the security of war.
It was at first supposed that in the convention sections, where a large proportion of the voters might easily be under the influence of New York, that there would be a tendency to response the candidacy of some other man than Mr. Taft. A careful survey of the situation in those communities indicates that this is not the case. Not only is Mr. Taft's candidacy favored, but the feeling prevails that New Jersey's delegates should be instructed to vote for him "first, last and all the time." In reaching the conclusion that Mr. Taft is the favorite candidate of the Republicans in New Jersey, especial effort was made to gain expressions of opinion from those who are not classed either as politicians or officeholders.

TRY TO DYNAMITE ADJUTANT WELLS IN HIS OWN HOME

Telluride, Col., March 28.—Unknown parties made an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate by dynamite in his home here, Bulkeley Wells, former adjutant general, who had charge of the troops during the mining troubles.
Wells is now manager of the Smuggler mines.

Wells was rendered unconscious and his face and head were lacerated by his fall. He is being cared for at home. One suspect is being held.
Wells' escape from death is miraculous. He was sleeping on an outer porch, and was hurled high in the air.
He fell in the midst of the debris when the side of the house was torn away. Fragments were blown 500 feet. Although the house was guarded by patrols and electric lights, the dynamiters put the explosive almost under his bed.

MARSHALL GRAND JURORS GO HOME TO SPEND SUNDAY

No Arrests as Yet Made on Five Indictments For Gilbertsville Raid.

Theodore Luttrell Receives Another Notice.

NEGRO LABORER IS WARNED.

Benton, Ky., March 28.—(Special.) —After indicting the five men last evening for participating in the night raid on Gilbertsville a few weeks ago, when people were taken out and warned, the Marshall county grand jury was released by Judge Reed until Monday. The jurors will assemble here to take up the Birmingham raid.
Five negro refugees from Birmingham were brought here by Commonwealth's Attorney Lovett to testify in the case. No arrests have been made yet, but officers are out after the men indicted.

The rifles sent from the state arsenal at Frankfort have been received and placed in the hands of trustworthy men. Arrangements have been made for concerted action at a given signal, and there will be something doing if an attempt is made to raid the town.

Second Warning.

Another notice has been received by T. W. Luttrell, of Maxon Mills, warning him not to work on the roads of McCracken county this year. Mr.
Luttrell was in the city today, and said it, like the first letter, had been turned over to the proper officials.
The letter was mailed from Paducah, and was dated March 23. The first lines of the letter were similar to the writing of the first letter, but the closing words Mr. Luttrell thinks were written by another person.

Instead of signing the message "Night Riders," the writers, merely said "Good Night." Mr. Luttrell is not frightened and says he will not lose any sleep over the notice.

Colored Man Warned.

Charles Bowman, a colored laborer in the Palestine neighborhood, which is near Maxon Mills, received a letter through the Paducah mail, instructing him to clear out. Bowman said he would not leave, but since Theodore Luttrell has received a second notice, Bowman is frightened.

Denounced Night Riders.

Mayesville, Ky., March 28. (Special.)—The barn and dwelling of John W. Osborne, of Mason county, was destroyed by night riders, because he denounced riders.

FIRE IN KANSAS

Emporia, Kan., March 28.—Fire fanned by a wind storm early today, swept and destroyed half the business district of Howard. The loss, it is believed, will reach $300,000. The specie house, the postoffice and other buildings were burned.

SENATOR BAILEY WINS PLACED AT FT. WORTH.

Fort Worth, March 28.—Senator Bailey arrived at noon today to attend the Democratic state convention, which will name him as one of the delegates-at-large to the national convention. His reception was one of the greatest accorded any man in Texas.

GOVERNOR GUILD PROBABLY WILL RECOVER HEALTH.

Boston, March 28.—For the first time since Governor Guild's condition became critical his physician today said he expected ultimate recovery.

PAINTERS' SCALE

The wage scale for 1908 of the painters and paperhangers will be signed before April 1, and no trouble of any kind is expected. All of the employers have agreed to sign the scale, and many have affixed their signatures. The union has a scale for piece work, and everyone is satisfied.
Elias Breidenbach, fourth vice president of the union, arrived in the city last night from Louisville and met with the local union. The situation was talked over thoroughly, and the meeting with Mr. Breidenbach resulted in a better organization.

Seventeen years ago yesterday this section was visited by a cyclone, the principal damage being done to the bridge across the Cumberland river near Grand Rivers. It was at the same time that a portion of Louisville was swept away and many lives lost.

STORMY.

Thunder storms this afternoon and tonight, followed by colder Sunday.
Partly cloudy and colder. Highest temperature yesterday, 70; lowest today, 65.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.

Let a woman know woman's sufferings. I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—your mother, your sister, your daughter, your friend, or your neighbor. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand woman's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is a safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White discharge, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Proflusa, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors or Growths; also pains in the head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weakness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex. I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you should wish to continue, it will cost you only about 12 cents a week, for less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISOR" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedsily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharge and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Plumpness and health always result from its use. Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell you how this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address

NO PROOF

SUFFICIENT TO HOLD MEN FOR NIGHT RIDER CRIME.

Alleged Murderers of Herman Hedges of Nicholas County, Are Set Free.

Carlisle, Ky., March 28.—Jettie McClanahan and Henry Fanning, charged with complicity in the murder of Herman Hedges during the night rider raid in this county last Friday night, were dismissed on their examining trial. There were several thousand people in and around the court house at the time of the trial, and the dismissal of the two men was greeted with loud cheering.

Fanning's trial was taken up first, as the defense insisted on separate hearings. Mrs. Hedges, the widow of the murdered man, testified that she saw Fanning on a horse on the road at the time of the shooting, but Fanning brought in three witnesses to prove that he was at home all night, and in the eyes of the court apparently established an alibi. Several witnesses also testified that Mrs. Hedges had stated at the coroner's inquest, and several times afterward, that she did not recognize my body. The hot fire questions, however, did not shake Mrs. Hedges' testimony.

Young Hedges, son of the murdered man, told of the details of the shoot leg but said he could not recognize any of the men who entered the house after his father had been shot.

At the conclusion of the testimony the attorneys for Fanning moved that the judge dismiss the defendant, declaring the prosecution had failed to make out a case. This motion was upheld, amid considerable cheering, and then County Attorney Morgan announced that the case against McClanahan was not as strong as that against Fanning, and that if Fanning was dismissed it was useless to proceed further. Accordingly the judge also set McClanahan free.

RAILROAD NOTES

Fight 2-Cent Fare.

Chicago, Ill., March 28.—At conferences held in Chicago between presidents of Missouri and Illinois railroads and their general counsel, it was practically decided to attack the constitutionality of the 2-cent passenger rate law in Illinois. The Missouri lines already have a suit pending at Kansas City before the federal court which attacks the constitutionality of the 2-cent law in that state. On Monday next the attorneys of the Missouri lines will meet to discuss the status of all the state rate legislation in the light of the United States supreme court decision in the Minnesota case.

The proceedings in Illinois will be upon the assumption that the law comes within the scope of the decision of the supreme court in the Minnesota and the North Carolina rate cases. None of the railroad lawyers had yet received a copy of the opinion of the supreme court of the cases mentioned, and it was decided to defer definite action until the complete text of the decision could be available. Upon the receipt of the opinion intelligent action can be taken. It was the general opinion, however, that the decision makes the way plain and easy for a similar court declaration with respect to the laws in both Illinois and Missouri, and also with respect to the laws in some other states.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Richards & Pringle's.

A worn-out gag or joke will sour the sweetest disposition and a had comedian will transform the most even tempered individual into a cross-grained and irritable crank. If impatience or fault-finding are ever excusable it is when a person is tortured by a bad and long worn-out act. These things are the fault of the management of an organization. The managers of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels are to be commended to the careful attention they have given their organization. They have the artists and the material to give what they advertise, viz.: Everything new this season, and the public will have a chance to draw their own conclusions on Monday night, March 30, at The Kentucky.

DIES AFTER LONG AND USEFUL LIFE IN THIS COMMUNITY.

Native Virginian and Early Settler in Blue Grass of Kentucky—Leaves One Daughter.

Mr. Richard Holland, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Paducah, died last night at his home, 1335 Tremble street, after an eight weeks' illness of Bright's disease. Mr. Holland was born in Virginia, September 2, 1824, and removed with his parents to Shelby county, Ky., in 1836, the family being prominent in the early affairs of the Blue Grass country. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Loyd, of near Hopkinsville, in 1852, removing to McCracken county in 1868. Being of a sterling character, a giant in size and intellect, quiet and unassuming, he was a true type of the southern gentleman. Mr. Holland enjoyed splendid health until about five years ago when he began to fail and for the past year has been quite feeble.

The only member of his immediate family living is his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Coleman, his wife having died about seventeen years ago. Former Sheriff Richard Holland, of Paducah, is a nephew and Miss Johnnie Beard, of Hopkinsville, a niece. Miss Beard was a constant attendant at his bedside during the last illness.

The funeral of Mr. Richard Holland will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence, 1335 Tremble street. The funeral services will be preached by the Rev. S. H. Moore, pastor of the First Christian church of which Mr. Holland was a member. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The pallbearers are R. J. Barber, Lem Ogilvie, Edgar Whittemore, H. Boone, S. T. Randall and Ed Rodgers. Mr. Holland's only grandson, Mr. Holland Coleman, of Washington C. H., D. C., will arrive tonight at 6 o'clock and all the other relatives from Hopkinsville and Madisonville are here.

"LOUISVILLE KID" WANTED BY POLICE OF PADUCAH.

Eva Johnson, colored, was shot by an unknown colored man Thursday morning on North Twelfth street near the city limits. The assailant was from Louisville, and went by the name of "Kid." He was drinking and pulled a pistol out of his pocket, according to the statement of the woman. He was warned to hide the gun, but instead fired, and the bullet entered the abdomen of the woman. Eva Johnson was carried to her home on South Second street and the news of the shooting did not get out until late yesterday afternoon when the police learned of it. The woman is able to walk around today, and it is expected that she will recover. The police are looking for the "Kid," who, she says, did the shooting.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

PUBLIC INSPECTION INVITED FROM 8 A. M. TO 4 P. M. SATURDAY'S EXCEPTED LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs—without drugs?

Come and See. Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told? Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick women are asked to write?

Come and See. Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents? Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women? Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

A Convincing Experiment

Dr. Sabouraud, of the Pasteur Institute, Paris, France, (ask your doctor about him), inoculated a rabbit with human dandruff germs, and "in between five and six weeks," says the report of the Pasteur Institute, "the rabbit was completely denuded, in fact, had become guttily bald."

This experiment proves that dandruff is a contagious disease due to the presence of a microbe growth in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. It also proves that unless the formation of dandruff is stopped by destroying the dandruff germ, that it will lead to falling hair and incurable baldness.

The only safe remedy, the intelligent use of which will absolutely kill the dandruff germ is

Newbro's Herpicide

"A stitch in time saves nine." While this quotation does not refer to the hair, the DO IT NOW idea in it, is the best possible advice to those who need a hair remedy.

Each day the hair is neglected means that the scalp is just a little worse than it was the day before. If you are indifferent about your hair and let it take care of itself, you should not complain when it becomes unsightly, or leaves you entirely. People who care for their health and personal appearance now try to save their hair. Newbro's Herpicide enables them to do this, surely, and in a very pleasant manner.

It is the first scientific HAIR SAVER, and it is growing wonderfully in popularity. It acts by destroying the tiny vegetable growth in the scalp (the dandruff germ) after which the hair will grow as nature intended, unless the use of the remedy has been delayed too long. Remember that the dandruff germ may be planted in the scalp months or years before its presence is suspected. The first injury is dullness, dryness or excessive oiliness, followed by dandruff, itching scalp, and finally falling hair.

Much can be done toward eradicating the dandruff germ without the use of remedies. Information upon this subject will be mailed free, upon request, to those who send stamped envelope for reply, to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A Good Report.

"Before using Herpicide I was constantly annoyed by itching of the scalp and dandruff came off in large scales each time I combed my hair. I have used one bottle of Newbro's Herpicide and the itching sensation is over and dandruff is almost a thing of the past. I had been troubled with dandruff many years."

ARTHUR J. RICHYON,
Newark, N. J.

Recommends It to Others.

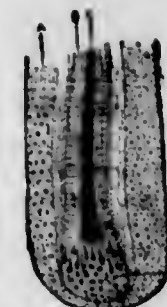

"I had dandruff ever since I can remember until two years ago, when I began the use of your Herpicide. Since that time I have not been troubled with it in the least, and as mine was a very bad case and the cure is positive, I take pleasure in recommending Herpicide to all those who are troubled with dandruff."

(Signed)

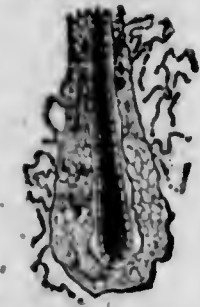

F. W. SEXTON,
Seattle, Wash.

Pleased With Herpicide.

"I feel that I ought to say something in praise of your Herpicide as a dandruff cure. I have used several bottles and I find it the nicest and most satisfactory preparation for the hair that I have ever used. I have been bothered with dandruff so long and have tried several remedies, but have found nothing so pleasing as your Herpicide."

Senator Whyte and '13.

The Baltimore Sun has collected a lot of anecdotes of the late United States Senator William Plunkney Whyte. Maryland's "Grand Old Man." One of them shows that the venerable statesman stood in horror of the mystic 13, and particularly Friday, the 13th. Once, when about to seat himself at the dinner table, he noticed that he would make the thirteenth person, and told those already seated to proceed—that he would wait a while. The reason for his hesitation being suspected, his granddaughter said: "Why, Grandpa, sit down, with me, there are only twelve and a half."

After this only the grandfather laughingly assented. And again, says the Sun, "It may have been fate that decreed that his last illness should have come on that Friday, the 13th, of which he stood in fear."

Deer Swims Twenty Miles.

After swimming twenty miles in the icy Hudson, a large deer swam ashore at Grassy Point, about two miles north of Haverstraw, yesterday afternoon and was easily captured by several young men who were hunting.

The deer was one of the large herd which has been seen occasionally about Tuxedo Park. It strayed from the herd and was pursued by several of the townsmen. It ran until it reached the Hudson and then plunged into the river and swam south. It being a closed season for deer, the young men who caught it could not kill it. They took it into the mountains and released it. —New York American

"L'ENVOI" OF HOUSECLEANING.

When Earth's last picture is dusted,
And the floors are painted and dried—
When the oldest carpet is beaten,
And the youngest spider has died—

We shall rest—and, faith, we shall need it!

Lie down for a moment or two—
Till the dust on the grand piano Shall set us to work, anew.

And those that are clean shall be happy—

They shall eat off a kitchen chair,
And dash with a seven-league broomstick
At the back of the chiffoniere.

We shall have real paint to lean on—
Pile everything into the hall—
And scrub for hours at a sitting—
And never be tired, at all!

And the Man of the House will praise us,
And will (more than probably) blame;

And we never shall get any money (And certainly not any fame).

But such for the joy of the cleaning—
And each in her feminine glee
To look just as well as the neighbors—

For the sake of Things They Might See!

Civic, State and National Pride.

An especially attractive program, and one of more than passing local interest, will be presented by the Educational department of the Woman's club at the open meeting on Thursday afternoon. In making it a "Students' Afternoon" the important features of education will be brought out in an indirect way, but one calculated to interest and inspire.

There is more than usual local pride felt in the speakers for the afternoon. Edward Mitchell's oration on "Kentucky" was for him the right to represent Paducah at the tri-city high school contest at Hopkinsville, and the second honor there, that many thought he should have been first. The subject is one that especially appeals to us all and Mr.
Mitchell handles it well and fearlessly.
Patriotism will be well emphasized at the meeting, for linked with state pride will be that of our country in "Life at West Point." Mr. Richard Donovan was graduated from West Point in February and is now at home on a furlough before entering the coast artillery service to which he has been assigned. As a Paducah boy who has "made good" all are interested to hear him apart from the attractiveness of his subject. The musical program will be well featured, and the college part will be represented by the P. H. S. Glee club, which numbers some excellent voices.
Out of compliment to the teachers and pupils who may wish to attend, the program will not begin until 4 o'clock.

Magazine Club.

Mrs. George C. Wallace was hostess to the Magazine club on Thursday afternoon at her home on North Ninth street. It was an especially delightful meeting of the club with a number of visitors present. The reports were varied in interest and attractively given. From the Outlook Mrs.
Ell G. Boone gave an article on "Criminal Reform Work." Mrs. Mildred F. Davis discussed "The Up-to-date Woman." Mrs. Samuel T. Hubbard told of "Migratory Birds." Miss Helen Lowry, as substitute for Mrs.
Frank L. Scott, reported the series of articles by Helen Keller. Miss Anna Webb represented the North American Review, featuring "The Poet's Mind." "The Blind Optimist" was given from the Outlook by Miss Alice Isabel Compton. A prettily appointed luncheon was served during the afternoon. Out-of-town visitors present were: Mrs. W. H. Sallee, of Danville, and Mrs. John Isler, of Hickman.

Charming Musical Afternoon.

One of the most thoroughly delightful of programs ever presented by the Matinee Musical club was given on Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's club house under the direction of Mrs. Edwin Rivers and Miss Allie Ragby. The very name, "Old Favorites," lent a fascination and attracted many outside of the club circles.
Some of the "Old Favorites" attractively featured were: "Long, Long Ago," "The Last Rose of Summer," "The Low-Backed Chair," "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Twickenham Ferry," "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," "Blue Danube Waltzes," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "All Thro' the Night," "Alice, Where Art Thou?" "Bonnie Doon," "Carnival of Venice," "Loch Lomond," "Auld Lang Syne." Accompanying the voices were cornet, violin and piano. Some of the best musical talent of the city took part in the program.

Pleasant Social Occasion.

Mrs. W. H. Ralph, of 1211 Monroe street, entertained Manchester Grove, No. 29, Woodmen Circle, on Friday afternoon at her home. It was an enjoyable affair and a pig contest was an unique feature. Mrs. Mary Prong captured the first prize, a hand-painted salad bowl. The consolation prize, a pretty Japanese cup, went to Mrs. Daisy DeLoach, of Memphis.
Tenn. Delightful ices, cakes and fruit were served after the game. The dining-room was prettily decorated by the colors of the grove. Covers were laid for 20. The guests were: Mrs.
James Kettler, Prong, Shaffer, Jordan, Roser, Berger, Reeves, Clark, Houseman, Fuller, Wagner, DeLoach, of Memphis; Mamie Murray, of Memphis; Minnie Murray, King, Thompson, Richardson, Misses Morgan and Ralph.

Mid-Year Meeting at Harrodsburg.

The mid-year meeting of the Executive Board of the State Federation of Woman's clubs which has been in session since Thursday at Harrodsburg, will close today. Much business of interest has been before the body and the social features have been especially pleasant. The officers of the State Federation and the chairmen of the different committees have planned the work for the future, and decided on arrangements for the meeting of the State Federation at Paducah, discussed ways and means, and attended the routine business that usually comes up before the Board of Managers at this time. Mrs. Letcher

STRANGE NEWS FROM THE WEST.

Our neighbor, "The Press," says the New York Tribune has been making some extraordinary discoveries recently in the terra incognita of western politics. It unearthed three weeks ago the remarkable "fact" that of the 1,774 delegates to the Missouri Republican convention 672 were federal officeholders. This disclosure was indeed extraordinary, since no political convention in any state in the union had ever before seen so vast an army of federal officials carried on its membership roll and since the vigilant representatives of the St. Louis news papers detailed to report the proceedings of the Missouri convention failed utterly to note so curious and record-breaking a phenomenon in American politics. There are more than three hundred thousand Republicans in Missouri. The Republican electoral ticket in 1900 received 314,092 votes, and the Republican electoral ticket in 1904 received 321,449 votes. Yet, according to "The Press" information and logic, the wishes and purpose of the party in Missouri were determined by a handful of federal officeholders, even granting that the Falstaffian army visualized in our neighbor's St. Louis dispatches was not a vagary of the imagination but a demonstrable fact.

"The Press" has now discovered that the Republican party in Iowa, as well as in Missouri, is not a responsible, self-governing organization. There were 1,180 delegates in the Iowa state convention held on Wednesday at Des Moines, and its action, so far as instructions to the delegates at large to the Republican national convention were concerned, was as unanimous as was the action of the recent convention in Missouri. Our contemporary does not say that two-thirds of the Iowa delegates were also federal officeholders. Yet it maintains that the federal officeholders who were present (no figures given) actually controlled the situation and compelled the great majority of the delegates to do something quite opposed to their own wishes and the wishes of Iowa's Republican voters. "The Press" explanation of this paradox is highly ingenious. It says that the Allison faction and the Cummins faction were fighting desperately for control, the followers of Governor Cummins being anxious to elect him to the United States senate to replace Mr. Allison. Each faction feared that it would lose if it announced a preference for the presidential nomination not identical with the preference announced by the other faction. Therefore each declared a preference for Secretary Taft, though "The Press" says that neither faction is really for Taft and that the Iowa voters are also not for him. This explanation substitutes magic for mathematics. It adds three zeros and obtains a number equal to Iowa's representation in the Republican national convention. If neither the Allison nor the Cummins element is for Taft—and these two elements include the great majority of the three hundred thousand Republican voters in Iowa—then Taft has no popular strength whatever in the state. But if a candidate has no popular strength in a state and is, besides, not acceptable to either of the contending factions what benefit can either expect from espousing his candidacy? Why should not one faction seize on a more popular man and use his greater popularity as a club to beat down the other faction? Politicians are practical and keenly awake to their own interests. They prefer to tie, if possible, to candidates with local popular sentiment behind them. The idea that the Iowa Republicans could be driven to act against their will by a little coterie of federal officeholders is grotesque. There is no state in the union in which the Republican party is freer from such domination than it is in Iowa or in which the Republican voters have more decidedly the habit of acting on their own judgment and executing their own purposes.

Graft has been found in the Chicago city water. But then, if that is all they have found in the water, it is drinkable, at least.

Either some large newspapers employ men of little sense, or self-satisfied New Yorkers imagine they have cornered all the brains of the world. Else why does the New York Sun declare that the Republican party in congress is about to pass laws "on the eve of an election" for the purpose of "perpetuating itself in power" and not because the "people demand them"? Since the Republican party has to go before the people on its record next November, and this is the last session of congress before election day, it is to be presumed, that if the party is passing any laws "to perpetuate itself in power," it is passing those laws with a view to their effect on the election. Isn't that interfering vote-catching legislation, and whom should the Republican party try to please with its laws to catch the votes of the people? Surely, the New York Sun doesn't mean to infer that the Republican party is enacting legislation the people do not want in order to win the votes of the people. The New York Sun is the organ of the trusts. Sometimes it is Democratic in its tendencies and sometimes Republican. Just now its leaning is Democratic, and that is a very good sign that the Republican administration is for the people.

THE DAILY NIGHT RIDER.

While The Paducah Evening Sun, conveying the information to the majority of newspaper readers of Paducah that five indictments were returned against alleged night riders in Marshall county, was being carried around town last evening, another Paducah paper appeared on the street, setting forth in bold type under startling headlines on the front page the following valuable information: "It is the opinion of lawyers at Henton that the grand jury has accomplished little. The jurymen have had trouble in getting the facts in the Birmingham raid. There is doubt if it has received sufficient evidence to convict any of the raiders."

This is the paper that has protested vigorously against what it considers misrepresentation of the night riders, by sensational accounts of their doings, and its article yesterday was designed to encourage night riders in other sections, by the declaration that the grand jury hasn't accomplished much, and has not received sufficient evidence to convict any of the raiders.

Nothing could do more to inspire hope in the breast of a night rider than the statement that they can't be convicted. And the statement is so apparently false. No lawyer in Henton ever told anybody connected with that paper that the grand jury wasn't accomplishing much. Only one lawyer in Henton could possibly have any idea of what the grand jury was doing, and that lawyer is Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett. He is not giving out any such lies as that, because he is the man who secured the evidence on which the five indictments were returned.

Both the night riders and their organ will learn that the people of Marshall county are behind this investigation, and the people at Henton are protecting that grand jury from any sort of intimidation. Marshall county will do her duty, and what she will do will go a long way toward discouraging night riding in the Purchase, our local night rider organ to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Hon. Charles K. Wheeler did a fine thing yesterday when he consented to assist in the prosecution in the police court. Too few good citizens will permit themselves to be bothered with little things like the enforcement of law and order.

CHAPTER X.

AFTER my watch below the next morning I met Percy Darrow. In many ways he is or was the most extraordinary of my many acquaintances. During that first half hour's chat with him I changed my mind at least a dozen times. One moment I thought him clever, the next an utter ass; now I found him frank, open, a good companion, eager to please, and then a droop of his blond eyelashes, a lazy, impertinent drawl of his voice, a hint of half bored condescension in his manner, convinced me that he was shy and affected. In a breath I appraised him as intellectual, a fool, a shallow mind, a deep schemer, an idler and an enthusiast. One result of his spasmodic confidences was to throw a doubt upon their accuracy. This might be what he desired, or with equal probability it might be the chance revelation of a childish and useless inability.

He was tall and slender and pale, languid of movement, languid of eye, languid of speech. His eyes drooped, half closed beneath blond brows. A long, very handily twisted rather affected blond mustache. His voice crawled his speech in a manner either lazily condescending and impertinent or ineffably tired—who could tell with him?

I found him leaning against the tall, his languid graceful figure supported by his elbows, his chin propped against his hand. As I approached the man he raised his eyes and motioned me to him. The insolence of it was so superb that for a moment I was angry enough to ignore him. Then I reflected that I was here not to stand on my personal dignity, but to get information. I joined him.

"You are the nut?" he drawled. "Shut I am on the quarter deck." I snipped back at him.

He eyed me thoughtfully while he rolled with one hand a corn husk Mexican cigarette.

"Do you know where you are going?" he inquired at length.

"Depends on the moral character of my future actions," I replied tartly.

He allowed a smile to break and fade, then lighted his cigarette.

"The first man seems to have a remarkable command of language," said he.

I did not reply.

"Well, to tell you the truth I don't know where we are going," he continued. "Though you might be able to inform me. Where did this ship and its precious gang of cutthroats come from anyway?"

"Meaning me?"

"Oh, meaning you, too, for all I know," he shrugged wearily. Suddenly he turned to me and laid his hand on my shoulder with one of those sudden bursts of confidence I came later to recognize and look for, but in which I could never quite believe—nor disbelieve.

"I am eaten with curiosity," he stated in the least curious voice in the world. "I suppose you know who his nibs is?"

He puffed.

"What does he pay you?" he asked. "Enough," I replied.

"More than enough by a good deal, I'll bet," he rejoined. "The old fool ought to have left it to me. What is this craft? Have you ever sailed on her before?"

"No."

"Have any of the crew?"

I replied that I believed all of them were Selevor's men. He threw the cigarette butt into the sea and turned back.

"Well, I wish you joy of your double wages," he mocked.

So he knew that, after all! How much more of his ignorance was pretended I had no means of guessing. His eye glared at me intensely as he snatched toward the companionway. Handy Solomon was in the wheel steering easily with one foot and an elbow. His steel hook lay fully exposed, glittering in the sunlight. Darrow glanced at it curiously and at the man's headgear.

"Well, my genial pirate," he drawled, "if you had a line to fit that hook you'd be equipped for fishing." The man's teeth bared like an animal's, but Darrow went on easily as though unconscious of giving offense. "If I were you, I'd have it arranged so the hook would turn backward as well as forward. It would be handy for some things—fishing, for instance."

He passed on down the companion. Handy Solomon glared after him, then down at his hook. He bent his arm this way and that, drawing the hook toward him softly, as a cat does her claws. His eyes cleared, and a look of admiration crept into them.

"My God, he's right!" he muttered, and after a moment "I've won that ten year and never thought of it. The little son of a gun!"

He remained staring for a moment at the hook. Then he looked up and caught my eye. His own turned quick and dead. He shifted his quip and began to hum:

rich bill with the difference that it provided for government instead of bank paper and asked for a roll call. The vote was 13 to 12 against the bill. Following was the vote on the passage of the bill: Yes—Aldrich, Askevney, Beveridge, Brandegee, Burton, Burnham, Burrows, Crane, Cullen, Curtis, Dejeu, Dick, Dillingham, Dixon, Dooliver, Harpout, Elkins, Eliot, Frye, Gallagher, Gamble, Ganger, Behn, Hopkins, Johnston, (Democrats), Keane, Knox, Lodge, Long, McCumber, Nelson, Owen, (Democrats), Perkins, Piles, Richardson, Smith, of Michigan, Smoot, Stephenson, Sutherland, Teller, (Democrats), Warren, Warren and Wetmore—42.

Nays: Brandegee, Borah, Republican, (Republicans), Brown, Cullen, Gray, Gore, Heyburn, (Republicans), La Follette, (Republican), McCleary, McHenry, McLaughlin, Overman, Payne, and Taylor—16.

Goes to House.

The Republican leaders in the house were reluctant about predicting the course of the Aldrich bill in that branch of congress. Enough was gathered, however, to justify the prediction with reasonable certainty that it will be referred to the committee on banking and currency, despite the current report that jurisdiction over it might be given the committee on rules. If the banking and currency committee should fail to come to a prompt agreement to report the bill favorably or adversely, it is likely a caucus of Republican members will be called to ascertain the attitude of the majority. Should a decision be made to support the currency bill, instruct the rules committee to bring in a rule discharging the banking committee from further consideration of the bill which will then be before the house.

If the currency is determined to pull the bill through promptly, very little debate will be allowed. If on the other hand, it is agreed in the currency to dissent the measure on the floor, the bill be committed to the committee of a while and discussed under the five minute rule.

In the house the Democratic side showed a general understanding that the majority will hold pretty fast to an agreement to support the currency bill introduced by its leader, John Sharp Williams. This bill was reported favorably to the house, by the Democratic members of the banking and currency committee as a substitute for the Fowler bill.

Art Exhibit Closes Tonight.

This evening will close the exhibit of the Turner Traveling Art Gallery at the "Three Links" building, Fifth street and Kentucky avenue. It is expected the crowd tonight will be a record one. The Literary department of the Women's club, Mrs. M. C. Burnett, chairman, will be the reception committee. The High school teachers have had charge today. The attendance on the exhibit has been fine. The proceeds will be devoted to buying pictures for the school rooms.

Of Interest Here.

The following will be of interest to the many friends Mrs. William Oregon Bonnie made here during a visit to Mrs. David Lindsay VanCulla. "Mrs. W. O. Bonnie, of Louisville, holds the record for the biggest tarpon at Tampico, Mexico. The Tampico Times says:

"For its length, one of the largest tarpon caught in the waters of the Tampico was hooked by Mrs. W. O. Bonnie and successfully landed last Thursday. The fish weighed 155 pounds and was 45 inches around the girth and 6 feet 4 inches long. Mrs. Bonnie, who is here from the tarpon fishing, with her husband, from Louisville, Ky., landed the fish without any gaffing or assistance whatever. While not within fourteen inches of the record for length, the tarpon caught by Mrs. Bonnie is the heaviest for its length landed in Mexico, and established a new record. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie thoroughly enjoyed outdoor life, and their present sojourn in Tampico is not the occasion of their first visit, and they declare it will not be their last."

DUN'S REVIEW.

New York, March 28.—Retail trade in spring goods has made further progress and conservative buying by dealers in preparing for current distribution is now providing a good supplementary demand from wholesale and jobbing houses. Unusually advanced weather conditions in many sections stimulated business and agricultural work is making an early start.

In the leading industries there is evidence of a gradual increase in contracts, many plants preparing for greater activity on April 1, while the proposed reductions in wages have produced no threats of strikes.

Dispatches from the west and south are most favorable as to the general commercial situation, a few cities reporting the volume of business fully equal to last year's and these statements are supported by bank exchanges at these same points about the same as in 1907.

These are still a complaint regarding mercantile collections although improvement is noted.

In the primary markets for textile fabrics, there is more inquiry especially for quantities of cottons to be shipped promptly.

The urgency of the demand for immediate shipment indicated that stocks in disturbing channels are light and goods must be secured for delivery on orders that were taken but not provided for. In expectation that lower prices would be named by producers before retailers called for them.

The decline in the price of raw material has had a depressing effect on the tone of the market for cotton goods, and actual improvement is therefore the more gratifying, while finished products are no cheaper.

The market for woolen goods continues very narrow and no development is expected until after Easter. Signs of improvement are seen in the New England footwear industry, although many manufacturers still report trade quiet.

WARNER IS MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMITTEE HEAD.

Washington, March 28.—Among the committee changes announced was the appointment of Senator Warner of Missouri, to the chairmanship of the committee on the Mississippi river and its tributaries. The chairmanship is one hitherto held by Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, who, in accordance with the death of Senator Proctor, gets the chairmanship of the committee on public lands, Senator Haskins, of South Dakota, going to the head of the committee on agriculture, of which Senator Proctor was chairman. NEWS OF COURTS

In Circuit Court.

G. W. Katterjohn, for the use and benefit of the Globe Bank and Trust company, brought suit against C. D. Warren to collect $183.75, the amount assessed for street improvements in front of Warren's property on Broadway. Mr. Katterjohn was the contractor doing the work and after the estimate of the cost was furnished him he transferred the account to the bank.

Suit was filed in circuit court by the Memphis Paving company against Captain James Koger and H. H. Scott, owners of the factory building formerly occupied by the Southern Paper company, to collect $180, the amount the property owners were assessed by the city engineer for the street improvement adjoining the property. The paving company asks that it be adjudged to have a first lien against the property until the debt is paid.

UNKNOWN PARTIES

FIRE ON GUARDS STATIONED AT WHEATCROFT.

Lead Was Swapped But No One Injured—No One Has Been Discovered.

News has been received in Madrienville of a fight between guards of the Western Kentucky Coal company and other parties that occurred the other night at Wheatcroft, says the Hustler. Fortunately no one was injured in the melee, but two men had narrow escape from death.

It appears that while two of the guards were in the small house which is stationed directly underneath the searchlight near the mines several shots were fired, and one bullet passed through the building, going about two inches above the guards' heads. As soon as the shooting commenced, the operator of the searchlight directed his rays in the direction whence the shots had come and it was ascertained that they were parties concealed behind a school house 200 yards away. The guards then opened fire and the building was hit several times, but the persons doing the shooting were not discovered. It has only been a short time since an attempt was made to wreck a train near Wheatcroft by sawing the supports of a trestle, which, if the attempt had been successful, would perhaps have resulted in loss of life, but fortunately, the unsafe condition of the trestle was discovered in time to prevent a passenger train from passing over the weakened structure.

Wealthy Indiana Farmer Swindled Out of $20,000 by the Old Green Goods Game.

Rushville, Ind.—Jonathan S. White, of Rushville, known by many of his friends as "Stamper" White, and one of the richest farmers in Rush county, is said to be the victim of a confidence game in which he lost $20,000. It is alleged that White was induced to go into a venture by two neighbors, both of whom bore good reputations, and it is said that, under instructions from a gang of confidence men in Indianapolis, the two men have been constantly on White's heels since last harvest and induced him to draw a large sum of money from a bank in this city and buy a quantity of spurious money saying that they would play their part in the deal, agreeing to circulate the money in various cities throughout the country.

CATARRH BLOOD UNHEALTHY SYSTEM DERANGED

The entire inner portion of the body is covered with mucous membrane; this membranous tissue is abundantly supplied with blood vessels, veins, arteries, and capillaries. Each of these is constantly supplying to this tissue or lining, blood to nourish and strengthen it and keep the system healthy. When the blood becomes infected with catarrhal matter it is not able to furnish the required amount of healthful properties, but feeds the parts with impurities which disease the membranes and tissues so that they become irritated and inflamed, and Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, is established in the system. There is a constant ringing in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disease, and gradually the entire health becomes affected and the system upset and deranged. In its earlier stages, when Catarrh is confined to the nose and throat, sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are soothing and in a way beneficial, because they are cleanly and usually antiseptic, but such treatment has no curative effect, because it does not reach the blood. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified, and this is just what S. S. S. does. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its foundation; it removes the cause and makes the blood pure and healthy. Then the blood vessels are filled with fresh, reinvigorated blood, which is carried to all the mucous surfaces and linings, the inflammation and irritation are corrected, the symptoms all disappear, the health is improved and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

WEEK IN SOCIETY

refreshments were served. The guests were: Misses Halden, Hattie Ross, Stella Ross, Nora Potter, Bessie Watts, Clara Rhodes, Florence McAdams; Messrs. John J. Donovan, J. M. Max Brogan, Robert Pierce, Jennie Rothwell, Charles Hurd, Sanders Miller, Chris. Steager, James Rhodes, Athol Robertson, Walker Burrows, Hubert Wright, Leroy Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowe.

Pleasant Occasion.

A pretty birthday reception was given on Thursday evening by the Church Furnishing society of the First Christian church. The church parlors were attractively arranged for the occasion and were decorated with palms and ferns. Refreshments here were: Mrs. Harry Williamson, Mrs. John Wright, Mrs. James Utterback, Mrs. George Wallace, Mrs. William Whitefield and Miss Birdie Woolfolk. The dining-room upstairs was effectively decorated. Delicious leas and cakes were served. Mrs. Samuel H. Pulliam was assisted here by a number of ladies. A pretty musical program was rendered during the evening under the direction of Miss Caroline Ham. It was "everybody's birthday party" and a number of guests were present.

Complimentary to Memphis Guests.

Mrs. James W. Clark entertained the Manchester Grove and the Junior Grove of Woodmen Circle on Tuesday evening at her home, 1114 South Fourth street, in honor of Mrs. Daisy DeLoach and Mrs. Thomas Murray, of Memphis, visiting members of the grove. It was a "tacky party" and a most pleasant occasion. Mrs. DeLoach carried off the honors for the most unique costume worn by grove members and Miss Geneva Moore received the prize for the juniors. A number of games featured the evening enjoyably and delightful refreshments were served. Among the guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames William Kyle, William Jordan, William Rosler, Louis Wurtman, James W. Clark, Mesdames Kettler, Reeves, Burgess, Kenne Murray, Farmer, Smith, Berry, Shane, Marjorie Berry, Lillie Greenhalgh, Sis. Roy, Mamie Bridge Pro et Con.

The New York World and a Wellesley college professor have interested the arena for and against bridge. The points of view are diametrically opposite, sufficiently so to satisfy the most radical believer of each. Here is how the New York World sums it up: "Bridge, according to Prof. Elmer M. Howard, of Wellesley, is to girls college students what stealing, sneaking and breaking street lamps are to the college boy. It is mental chewing gum; the 'last infirmity of empty mind.'"

"It is assumed that Miss Howard is not conversant with the heart convention, the eleven rule and the lead through. If these be infirmities of empty mind the quality of feminine intellect must be advancing. But it is somewhat discouraging to see a woman college professor enrolling herself in the ranks of the universal regulations. Do not presidents, chancellors of fresh-water colleges and aldermen suffice to that end? Would Professor Howard have her pupils always reading Plato? Bridge, in the opinion of some observers, is an invaluable means of mental relaxation. There is no brooding at the bridge table. The game engrosses the attention to the exclusion of all less serious worries. It claims the mind, quiets the nerves, soothes the passion, stimulates the activity of the brain cells and fosters politeness through its rigid etiquette. To deny intellectually to bridge is like imputing levity to the Sphinx. Bridge is a philosophy, a code of social usages, an institution. He who first brought it from the east for the diversion of western minds gave society a new creed with which to bind it together in closer bonds."

Elaborate Birthday Dining.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier, of the county, entertained a number of their friends on Thursday at their home in honor of the birthday of Mr. Collier. It was an all-day affair, and an "old-time quilting bee" was enjoyed by the ladies. The dinner was an elaborate and delightful affair. There were 150 guests present.

Pleasant Anniversary Celebration.

The Woman's Home Mission society of the Trimbale Street Methodist church pleasantly celebrated the fourth anniversary of its organization on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Chastaine, on North Eighth street. It was a social occasion and all the ladies of the church were the guests of the society. The annual report was read by Mrs. C. P. Houseman, the secretary. Delightful refreshments were served.

Entertained at Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCellan, 427 South Second street, entertained a number of their friends most pleasantly on Monday evening at their home. It was an informal card party with a pretty course-luncheon served after the game.

Delphic Club.

An especially pleasant meeting of the Delphic club was held on Tuesday morning at the Delphic club room in the Carnegie library. "Mehemet Ali and the Pashas" were interestingly features by Mrs. Lillard Sanders. "The Suez Canal" was copiously described by Miss Helen Lowry. Mrs. George C. Wallace told with agreeable charm of "Modern Alexandria."

Kalosophic Club.

The Kalosophic club held an interesting meeting on Friday morning at the Woman's club house. Three of the world-famed buildings that make Rome "the Eternal City" were attractively presented. Miss Hattie Hisey's paper describing "St. Peter's" was read by Miss Lula Reed in the absence of Miss Hisey. Miss Phillipa Hughes featured the Vatican. "The Sistine Chapel" was described by Miss Falth Langstaff. Miss Katherine Quigley discussed "Current Events."

About People.

Mrs. Ell G. Boone, regent of the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will attend the D. A. R. Continental Congress that convenes in Washington on April 29. This is a national affair. A number will go from Kentucky. Mrs. Boone will represent the local chapter.

Miss Hattie Hisey left this week for Lawrenceburg to visit her friend, Miss Helen Ripy. Miss Ripy has been the guest of Miss Hisey on several occasions and made a delightful social impression.

Mrs. Saunders A. Fowler and little Miss Dorothy Fowler have returned from a several weeks' visit at Pass Christian, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn.

PARASOLS AND HAND-BAGS.

Dainty in Style and Coloring.

Parasols this summer are going to be in use more than any season heretofore. The bordered effect is being carried out in parasols as much as in dress goods. Embroidered pongees and rajahs with colored silk borders to match the dress are proper. The soft "Kniekerbocker," "Squaw" and pouch-bag of black and tan leather to match shoes have taken the place of other styles almost entirely. To be sure you see the proper styles in both parasols and bags, see them at L. B. Ogilvie & Co.'s, "The Daylight Store."

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. Sold by all Druggists.

Successful experiments have been made at the Royal theater, in Stuttgart, with a new apparatus designed to distribute ozone at fixed intervals throughout the building. The ozone is conducted by small tubes to all parts of the house and turned on, regulated and turned off at will. The result has been excellent, the air being completely purified within a few minutes.

Mr. John Riba, of Vinin, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results. Sold by all Druggists."

Dr. Story, the late principal of Glasgow University, taking a holiday in the country, was met by the minister of the district, who remarked: "Hello, Principal! You here? Why you must come down and relieve me for a day." The principal replied: "I don't promise to relieve you, but I might relieve your congregation."

To get well and keep well take McCLAIN'S CODIAL. Proved by more than fifty years of use to be the very best health preserver, strength maker and blood purifier. 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at all dealers.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

What never leak? -Exactly; never leak, never needs repairs of any kind, and last as long as the building itself. Neither melting snow, nor the worst driving rain can possibly reach the interior of the building that's covered with Cortright Metal Shingles. Pretty good recommendation isn't it? In addition we might add they're fire-proof and lightning proof too. Think of it! and they are not as expensive as other forms of roofing. Step in and we'll show them to you.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

NEW DEPARTMENT OF WEST
UNION ASSOCIATION.

Baptist Churches of McCracken and Barthol Counties Will Engage in This Work.

For the improvement of the Sunday schools of the Baptist church all of the churches in the West Union association, composed of the Baptist churches of McCracken and Barthol counties, will organize the Sunday school department. About 20 churches are members of the association. The Rev. W. J. Mahoney, state Sunday school secretary of the Baptist Mission Board of Kentucky, will deliver a series of lectures on Sunday school work at the First Baptist church, beginning April 12 and continuing for four days. Dr. Mahoney is a pleasant speaker, and has had work that has lifted him up an authority on improved Sunday school work.

At the lectures everyone in the city is welcome and it is expected that 50 delegates from the various churches over the counties will attend. The Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, editor of the "Western Recorder," but formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, will preach Friday night in the close of the series of lectures. Dr.
H. Joyce Taylor, of Murray, will assist Dr. Mahoney with the lectures.
The program is:

Monday.

3 p. m.—"The Purpose of the Sunday School."

8 p. m.—"Doctrine in the Sunday School."

Dr. H. Joyce Taylor, of Murray, Ky.

Tuesday.

3 p. m.—"At the Feet of the Master Teacher."

8 p. m.—"The Teacher Preparing the Lesson."

Wednesday.

3 p. m.—"The Evangelistic Spirit in the Sunday School."

8 p. m.—"The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church."

Thursday.

3 p. m.—"The Bible in the Sunday School."

8 p. m.—"The Teacher Teaching."

Friday.

3 p. m.—"The Nature of Teaching."

8 p. m.—"The Teacher's Problem."

West Union Association.

The West Union association, composed of the Baptist churches of Bar-thol and McCracken counties, is holding sessions at the Bellevue Baptist church, three miles from the city on the Mayfield road. The sessions began yesterday and will continue through tomorrow. Good interest has been manifested in the services, and the lectures have developed much discussion. Election of officers was held yesterday, and late this afternoon the list will be completed and the place of the next meeting selected.
Yesterday the Rev. M. E. Dodd was elected moderator and Terry Martin was chosen clerk.

day in giving the testimony an error was made. The evidence as published stated that W. C. Stanford swore he was absent from the presents from 10 a. m. to about 2 p. m. and other witnesses attested that he was present all day. The report should have stated Gordon Stanford, an employee of W. C. Stanford, was present all day. The confusion was made in the initials.

STORMS SWEEP OVER ILLINOIS

Tornado Also Reported in Michigan.

Four Houses Damaged in Region
Peoria, Ill., and Huntington, Ind., Towns and Residences Suffer.

HEAVY SNOW IN MICHIGAN.

Huntington, Ind., March 28.—A report from New Boston, Ind., ten miles west of Fort Madison on the Santa Fe railroad, states that a tornado struck that place last night blowing twelve freight cars from the tracks, demolishing a church and injuring a number of people. No one was reported killed at that place. Considerable damage to farm houses is reported.

This storm crossed the Mississippi river near Fort Madison, Ind., entering Illinois and plowing through Warren county, destroying houses and barns and injuring several persons. Near Monmouth, the home of Mrs. Newlan was destroyed and the ruins caught fire. Mrs. Newlan and several other members of the family were injured.
The home of Patrick Conner met the same fate, but the family escaped injury. Buildings belonging to H. D.
Lauver were leveled. No one was reported killed. It is estimated that a score of persons in Iowa and Illinois were injured.

In Peoria Region.

Peoria, Ill., March 28.—A heavy electrical and wind storm did considerable damage in a wide path through Fulton, Tazewell and Mason counties.
Wires are down and the full extent of the damage cannot be learned. In Peoria several small villages were blown down. All Maple Hill, six miles south of Canton, a house was blown down and a woman severely injured.

Tornado in Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., March 28.—A tornado in the southern part of this state, and a blizzard with heavy snow in the upper peninsula are the extremes of a general storm that struck Michigan.

The tornado did considerable damage to farm property around Blackman and Woodville, but no loss of life is reported. Train and trolley service is seriously delayed in upper Michigan. Heavy rain and wind reported from all parts of the state and telephone and telegraph communication is interrupted.

In Missouri.

Marshall, Mo., March 28.—Severe wind and hail storm broke the windows in many residences of this town, blow down trees and ruined many crops in this vicinity.

Captain Hobson Talks About Need of Large Navy and Shows Requirements.

(United Press)

Washington, D. C., March 28.—In one of the most powerful speeches delivered in the house this session, Representative Richmond P. Hobson (Dem., Ala.), pleaded for an appropriation at once for four new battleships instead of for only two as proposed by the committee on naval affairs.

The eloquence of the "Hero of the Merrimac" and his evident comprehensive knowledge of the subject made the membership forget the fact that this was the maiden effort of the young congressman.

The penalty for being unprepared for war, he said, would simply stagger the imagination. The proper investigation of the question of national defense, he maintained, involved the consideration of the possibility of a war with Great Britain and Japan combined, a war in which the American flag would be wiped from the sea and in which the hordes of India and China, as well as Japan would be thrown upon our shores.

"The only rational basis for a proper national defense is for us to proceed to guarantee control of the sea against any nation of Asia in the Pacific," declared Captain Hobson, "and against any nation of Europe in the Atlantic, both at the same time; and to here proclaim whether we realize this policy or not as inevitable for our national investigation, or whether we shall have to learn our lesson in the school of suffering, amidst humiliation and defeat,—we will yet learn the lesson that for the elemental purpose of self-preservation the very first duty that we owe ourselves in keeping with the first law of nature, is that America must be supreme on the ocean."

It was in line with the movement toward this supremacy that Hobson asked for four new battleships. The very minimum demanded by a reasonable program, in view of the battleships that other nations are building, he said, would be a provision for six enormous battleships a year for several years for the Atlantic ocean, and four for the Pacific.

He showed that on the Atlantic ocean, including the navigable rivers and the Great Lakes, and the West India possessions, there were 37,000 miles of water line exposed to naval attack. To this the Monroe doctrine had added 15,700 miles more, making in all 52,700 miles, as compared with 1,700 miles on the same ocean for which the three principle maritime nations of Europe were responsible.

As America has built her cities on her waterways and on the ocean as no other country had done, so would she suffer from a naval attack. "On the Atlantic, including the countries that border upon waterways, we have 15,700,000 population, and $17,000,000,000 of property values, practically within gunshot of the water," Hobson asserted. "More American citizens are thus exposed than there are citizens similarly exposed in all Europe combined, and more American property exposed than there is other property exposed in all the rest of the world combined."

Hobson deplored the lack of a merchant marine. The large standing armies of Europe would make it possible to maintain a naval base in America, while such would be impossible for America in Europe.

"Forts, mines, torpedoes, torpedo boats and submarines are valuable accessories, but such defenses have never stopped a determined command of a great fleet," exclaimed Capt. Hobson at the climax in his speech. "They did not stop Nelson at Copenhagen, nor Farragut at Mobile Bay, nor Dewey at Manila. Such defenses never determine the issue of a war, and have no weight in deterring an enemy from seeking war."

On the Pacific. The same conditions of disadvantage that were to be found in the Atlantic, said the congressman, were repeated with greater disparity in the Pacific. "With three times the amount of coast line," he declared, "we spread over the whole ocean, while the whole Japanese coast line is concentrated there at home, permitting of a perfect defense. We have so neglected the establishment of naval bases that our outlying possessions instead of being a source of strength are a source of great weakness, and it is a question whether it would prove possible to maintain a great fleet efficiently in the Pacific ocean, although the necessity for doing so is now unquestioned."

Our unpreparedness and defenselessness was wrong in that it placed temptation in the path of Japan," Hobson declared. "It is perfectly natural for Japan to aspire to dominate the commerce of the Pacific ocean, and to lead the Yellow race toward a recognized supremacy in the world," he added.

"It is clear to the Japanese statesmen that America is the one great nation standing athwart of the realization of these ambitions," continued Hobson. "Some have imagined that Japan's war-like preparations are intended for China. No one can conceive how new Dreadnaughts and a great new navy would be needed whereas there is scarcely a Chinese gunboat."

As a naval constructor, he said America had realized from 20 to 25 per cent more power than other nations upon contemporary vessels of equal size, yet with the new ships Japan was building America would be left behind.

He declared that the principle that should prompt the nation was that with a big navy, America, the great peace nation, could the better preserve peace throughout the world. A big navy, he said, would have prevented every war the United States had ever fought. Had we been strong enough in navy to make Russia get out of Manchuria, the Japanese-Russian war would never have been fought, he said.

He characterized a big navy as the best insurance a nation should have, "less than one-tenth of one per cent—the cheapest insurance on earth."

Other nations would not be quickened to increase their navies, by our increasing ours, because they have already inaugurated such a policy. A king might abuse the power of a big navy, but Hobson maintained that there could never be a bad American people.

He declared, in conclusion, a big navy did not interfere with Christianity, "because to fold one's hands and let sin and wickedness prevail are utterly unchristian."

WE ANNOUNCE A LEAP YEAR SALE TO BEGIN MONDAY

Something New in Leap Year Proposals—Something New in Sales.
Scores of Proposals to Our Patrons of Most Acceptable Saving.

THE tables are turned. We have reversed the Leap Year proposal subject. Going into the proposing business for a week on our own account. Leap Year proposals have long been laughed and joked about, but now we are going to make some that will be considered with a new seriousness and importance. And we will have them in over 57 varieties.

All the week, beginning Monday, we will present proposals of rare savings—proposals that the many needs of the new season necessitates be supplied—now and here, at a considerable saving.

We will not mince matters. We will weigh the attractions of our proposals carefully and calculatingly. For rejections are not in our line. Every one of our proposals will be worthy of the utmost consideration and respect—and each will be most acceptable for a practical monetary reason.

The Catch of the Season—Muslin Underwear Proposals

At regular prices this underwear would have more to commend them than any you will encounter elsewhere. Styled along the latest and best New York and Paris lines—perfect in fitting qualities—worthy of fabric—well-made—you would buy them on sight; even though their price was much more.

Ladies' Corset Covers and Drawers, made of good quality Muslin, nicely trimmed 25c Ladies' Corset Covers and Drawers, excellent Muslin, lace and embroidery trimmed 49c Chemise, finest quality Long Cloth, Nainsook and Lingerie, 49c to $1.50 Combination Suits, corset cover and drawers or corset cover and skirt, most popular garment shown this season in underwear. If you haven't worn a combination suit we propose that you should try it; 98c to $2.25
